

Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education

Presents the

Fall 2012 Raines Colloquium

Assessment isn't an Activity, It's a State of Mind

Dr. Gavin W. Henning
Associate Professor of Higher Education
New England College

Thursday, October 18 | 1:30–3:00 PM
252 Erickson Hall

Gavin W. Henning is Associate Professor of Higher Education at New England College where he also directs the Master of Science in Higher Education Administration and the Doctorate of Education programs. Prior to his transition to a full-time faculty position, Gavin spent 20 years in higher education administration with experience in residential life and housing, judicial affairs, alcohol and other drug issues, diversity initiatives, and divisional leadership. He spent 12 years working in student affairs assessment and institutional research. Gavin's scholarship has been published in professional journals and scholarly magazines and he has been an invited speaker at regional and national conferences. His scholarly interests include student engagement, student success, and assessment and institutional effectiveness.

Gavin is past chair of ACPA's Commission for Assessment and Evaluation and is currently a member of the ACPA Governing Board serving as Director for Professional Development. He also is a board member for the Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (CAS). Additionally, he is founder and past-president of Student Affairs Assessment Leaders, an international organization of student affairs assessment professionals. He has been recognized with the Annuity Coeptis and Diamond Honoree awards from ACPA for his contributions to student affairs and higher education. Gavin holds a Doctor of Philosophy in Education Leadership and Policy Studies and a Master of Arts both from the University of New Hampshire as well as a Master of Arts in College and University Administration and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Sociology from Michigan State University.

The Raines Colloquium honors the significant contributions of Emeritus Professor Max Raines to the department, the college, the university, and the field of student affairs in higher education. A national leader in the field, Dr. Raines was also a critical figure in creating a strong academic and professional foundation for MSU's nationally recognized programs in student affairs, adult education, and higher education.

To RSVP, if you require special accommodations, or for more information, please contact haleadm@msu.edu or 517-353-5187.