

Educational Administration Department Graduate Fellowships

The Department of Educational Administration offers several fellowships which are awarded on a competitive basis with no application process. They are designed to help recruit exemplary students and cover cost such as research, tuition, living expenses and professional development. These fellowships are often combined with graduate assistantship opportunities.

Education Leadership Graduate Fellowship

For recruiting (first-year) outstanding doctoral students intending to pursue full-time doctoral studies in either Higher Education or K-12 Administration.

Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education (HALE) Fellowship

Comprised of six scholarships which were previously awarded separately (the Julius E. Barbour Scholarship, the Arthur R. and Pearl Butler Scholarship, the Russell Kleis Memorial Scholarship, the Ernest & Aurora Melby Scholarship, the Archibald Shaw Memorial Scholarship, and the Don O. Tatroe Memorial Scholarship), this is awarded to an entering doctoral student in the Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education program.

Walter F. and Mary Jane Johnson Dissertation Research Award

For doctoral students in Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education who have prepared the strongest dissertation proposals as determined by a panel of reviewers.

Margaret F. Lorimer Endowed Graduate Fellowship In Higher Education

Recipients shall be first-year full-time doctoral students pursuing degrees in higher education. Awards will be made to students with outstanding academic credentials and prior experience demonstrating potential for leadership in higher education.