

Types of Graduate Study Abroad

2011 State of Field Survey

Table 6

Types of graduate-level programs available at Forum Member Institutions

Percent offering these

Member Institutions

Short-term	58%
Research, field experiences, etc.	47%
Semester or full year	34%
Exchanges	33%
Clinical experiences, preceptorships, rotations, etc.	28%
Quarter	4%

Academic and Professional Areas

2011 State of Field Survey

Table 7

Graduate-level programs are offered in these areas	Percent offering these
Business	51%
Arts and Sciences	43%
Medicine/Nursing/Health Sciences	30%
Law	26%
Engineering	18%
Education	7%

Who Coordinates Graduate Education Abroad?

2011 State of Field Survey

Table 8

Question:

Who coordinates graduate education abroad at your institution?

(select all that apply)

N/A	32%
Individual departments	43%
University education abroad office	45%
Professional graduate faculties	20%
Graduate school	12%

Forum-IIE Snapshot Survey

(Fall, 2012)

Graduate Students Studying Abroad	Public	Private	Total
Increase	50.0% (26)	34.1% (15)	42.7% (41)
No increase	50.0% (26)	65.9% (29)	57.3% (55)
Total	100.0% (52)	100.0% (44)	100.0% (96)

The Forum's Standards-Related Publications

- Standards of Good Practice for Education Abroad, 4th edition, 2011
- Standards of Good Practice for Short-Term Education Abroad Programs, 2009
- Code of Ethics for Education Abroad, 2nd edition, 2011
- Education Abroad Glossary, 2nd edition, 2011

