

The Reading People

Volunteers Needed

Help teach at-risk youth in your community!

Volunteers are paired one-on-one with students in the Lansing area, grades K-5, to help them complete literacy-based activities to strengthen their reading and writing skills.

Read to Succeed

More information:

- Free training and resources
- Classroom meetings take place twice weekly
- Volunteers will be assisted by an on-site staff member

What you can look forwards to:

Building your skills

Connecting with the community

Meeting new friends

Adding to your resume

Registration

Use the QR code or visit www.thereadingpeople.org/volunteer to sign up!

About The Reading People

The Reading People is a 501c nonprofit which works to eliminate illiteracy in our community by providing free educational support to those in need.