Summer Research Development Fellowships (SRDF)

- Goals :
 - Develop research skills & approaches
 - Support early-stage doctoral students

Summer Research Development Fellowships

- Eligibility:
 - Full-time students, after first year
 - Part time students, no more than 18 credits completed
 - Not UDF students because their summer is already funded
- Award: $7000 fellowship
- Due: Friday, January 17, 2025 AT NOON to the College (Qualtrics link in announcement & on webpage)
- Selection process:
 - Departments will be allocated a certain number of awards so that all departments have ~ the same rate of funded applications
 - Department faculty review & rate applications

Summer Research Development Fellowships

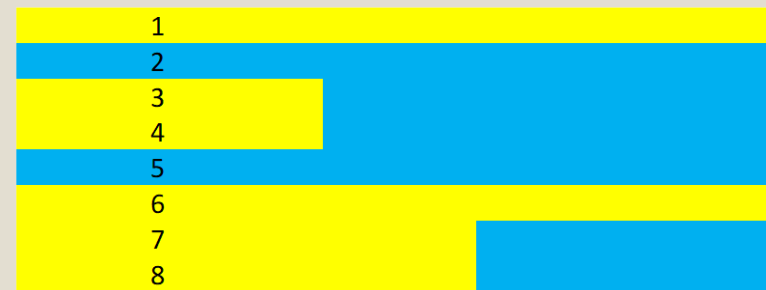

- Time:
 - 2 months full-time work
 - Can be divided in various ways
 - Can pro-rate the award (i.e. for 1 month, or 1.5 months)
 - School Psych students' awards will be pro-rated to 1 month
- Other work/classes
 - Recipients can do other work and can take classes
- Whose research?
 - YOURS

Fellowship flexibility

1 month of full-time work (so, a $3500 award) can look like this:

Yellow = research, blue = other

Summer Research Development Fellowship

Application consists of:

- Proposal (700 words max—words, not pages)
 - Name, year in program, mentor name, proposal word count (this material isn't included in the word count)
 - Proposed plan for research skill development
- Transcript (MSU grad coursework only)

Summer Research Development Fellowship

Selection criteria are set by the department

Prior evaluators have considered to what degree...

- Proposal is well-written and well-organized
- Author demonstrates an understanding of the field and its direction
- Importance of skills/approaches in the field
- Development of skills/approaches likely to advance student's research significantly
- The scope of the proposal is appropriate
- The applicant's academic record is strong

Summer Research Development Fellowship

Proposal writing tips:

- Read the proposal—what is it asking for?
- Read examples of successful proposals
- 700 words isn't much
- ORA advice:
 - Grant writing is a different genre
 - Condense intro & lit review
 - Make sure to include research plan & timeline

Examples

- These are from the all-college competition; listen to your departments
- We've posted past highly-successful proposals online with authors' consent: <https://education.msu.edu/resources/academic-student-affairs/summer-research-development-fellowships/>
- Another way to find this:
 - Google College of Education Academic & Student Affairs
 - Click on the graduate students' drop-down menu on the right-hand side

I AM...

Your mentor

Mentors – Q&A

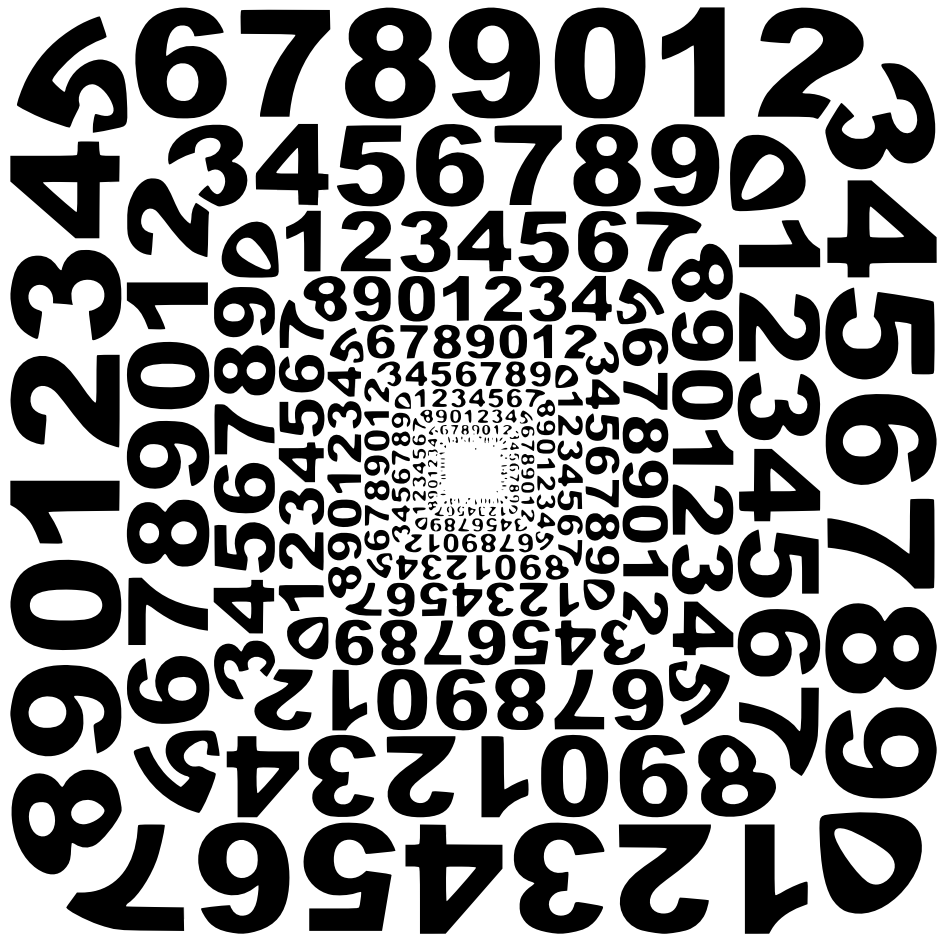

- Who selects my mentor? You do!
- Does it have to be my advisor? No
- Does it have to be someone in the College of Education? Yes
- May I have more than one? Yes
- What should I look for in a mentor? Research fit (research skill/ literature), personal connection
- What does my mentor do? Help (re)shape the proposal, be a thought partner, check in on progress, read drafts and comment

Disbursing “summer” funding

- Students can only receive fellowship funds during a semester they are enrolled
- Doctoral students are not normally enrolled in summer
- We will plan to initiate (start the payout of) SRDFs late in spring semester
- UNLESS a student has federal financial aid (federal loans)—LET US KNOW IF THIS IS YOUR SITUATION!
- Processing time—plan ahead
